SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the Defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of TWO (2) YEARS.

While on supervision, the Defendant must comply with the Mandatory and Standard Conditions that have been adopted by this Court, as well as with any other conditions on the attached pages.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance.
 - ☐ You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the Court. (applicable if checked)
 - ☒ Based on the Court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse, the above drug testing condition is suspended. (applicable if checked)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (applicable if checked)
5. ☐ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (applicable if checked)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (applicable if checked)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (applicable if checked)

STANDARD CONDITIONS

These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the Court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.

DEFENDANT: ANITA GREEN
CASE NUMBER: 3:22-CR-00274-JRK(3)

3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change. If not in compliance with the condition of supervision requiring full-time employment at a lawful occupation, the defendant may be directed to perform up to 20 hours of community service per week until employed, as approved or directed by the pretrial services and probation officer.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. As directed by the probation officer, you shall notify third parties who may be impacted by the nature of the conduct underlying your current or prior offense(s) of conviction and/or shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications, and/or confirm your compliance with this requirement.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Search / Seizure

You must submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. The probation officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

CASE NUMBER: 3:22-CR-00274-JRK(3)

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The Defendant must pay the total criminal monetary penalties:

	Assessment $100 per each Count of conviction	Restitution	Fine	AVAA Assessment*	JVTA Assessment
TOTALS	$100.00	$126,000.00	$0.00	Not Applicable	Not Applicable

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

The Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100.00 (one hundred dollars) as to Count Six (6) of the Indictment, which shall be due immediately. Said special assessment shall be paid to the Clerk, U.S. District Court, 1716 Spielbusch Avenue, Room 114, Toledo, Ohio 43604.

The Defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $126,000.00 (one hundred twenty-six thousand dollars), through the Clerk of the U.S. District Court. Restitution is due and payable immediately. Restitution shall be paid jointly and severally with co-Defendants Amanda Hovanec and Anthony Theodorou in U.S. District Court Case Number 3:22-cr-00274-JRK. Restitution shall be paid to the following victims:

Victims	Amount
Estate of T. H. & minor victims	$126,000.00

The Defendant must pay 25% of her gross income per month, through the Federal Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If a restitution balance remains upon release from imprisonment, payment is to commence no later than 60 days following release from imprisonment to a term of supervised release in monthly payments of at least a minimum of 10% of Defendant's gross monthly income during the term of supervised release and thereafter as prescribed by law.

Notwithstanding establishment of a payment schedule, nothing shall prohibit the United States from executing or levying upon property of the Defendant discovered before and after the date of this Judgment.

The Court determines that the Defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and the Court waives the imposition of any interest requirement in this case.

The Court determines that the Defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine and the Court waives the imposition of a fine in this case.

The Defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of the court.

Payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment, (2) restitution principal, (3) restitution interest, (4) fine principal, (5) fine interest, (6) community restitution, (7) JVTA Assessment, (8) penalties, and (9) costs, including cost of prosecution and court costs.
